MISCELLANEOUS.

A WOMAN'S heart is just like a lithographer's stone—that is once written on cannot be rubbed out.—Theobald.

THE gigantic philosopher, George Alfred Townsend, plainly announces that he will not oppose Grant's re-election. He says, "He must be fought not with lies, distortions, or cowardly, but with reason."

Two sweet little girls sat upon the sidewalk in front of the Elk post-office, one of them cradling a large wax doll. Her companion asked in tones of deep sympathy: "Do you have much trouble with your baby?"

It seems that Speaker Randall is one of the largest land-owners in the United States. If a correspondent of the World is not mistaken, writing about the title of the West Virginia land in this city a few days ago, he says: "Mr. Swann, a Massachusetts capitalist, lent large sums of money to Virginia during the revolutionary war. He received in liquidation of the state's indebtedness to him a great tract, which he located in Southwestern Virginia and Eastern Kentucky. These lands lie partly within the boundaries of McDowell County, and the original owner of all that now remains in the State of West Virginia is an estate of 1,300,000 acres, belonging not to an obscure and unknown person such as the owner in the late titular sale in New York, but to a gentleman of high standing in the West, who only acquired his assumed title in April, of the present year, but to no less distinguished a gentleman than Samuel J. Randall, the Speaker of the present House of Representatives."

THE AMERICAN TEA STORE, Corner Seventh and I Streets, Has been established eleven years, and it is well known that it has a large stock of the best FLOUR OF THE BEST BRANDS.
